Example – In the tradition of most metaphysical workers, I have given my various readings and reports flowery names. These are not technical meanings by any stretch of the imagination, but simply words or phrases that seem to me to fit the intent of the reading well. The proceeding paragraph gives a short but informative description of each type of reading. Most readings come in both a written and audio format. PDF: (cost); MP3: (cost)

Natal

These readings and reports are based off of your birth information – the date, time and place of your birth. For numerology, include your full birth name.

Triple Triad – This reading covers your Sun, Moon and Ascendant in great detail. It's the basis for many other reading types in this group, so if you're looking for something short and sweet to see if you want to go further, this is it. PDF: $15; MP3: $20

Triple Triad Trinity – Like the Triple Triad reading, but covers the analogs into the Draconic and Sidereal Zodiacs as well for an even better sense of just how far you can go into astrological work. Another good opening reading for the inquisitive mind. PDF: $35; MP3: $45

Fated Circle – If you've ever picked up a "free report" from another website, it's probably looked something like this, but not quite as filled out. Usually these sorts of reports either don't give you the major aspects or the placement of planets by house. The Fated Circle does both, listing the 10 primary planets by house and sign as well as their major aspects. It's a wider net than some of the readings that follow. PDF: $40; MP3: $50

Luminaire – If you want a concise, focused reading covering your most prominent personality traits, skills and tendencies, look no further. Luminaire covers your Sun, Moon and Ascendant as well as other Power Planets or Patterns in detail. It also includes 5 important numerological values. Shine a new light on your life with Luminaire! PDF: $60; MP3: $75

Starstorm – The Starstorm gives up the numerology from Luminaire for great detail on the astrological points. The Sun, Moon, Ascendant and Other Power Planets or Patterns still compose the reading, but information on the decans, dwads, and synodic phases is also included. Starstorm is an alternate intermediate reading for those not interested in the numerology. PDF: $60; MP3: $75

Shinra – On the other hand, maybe you're really interested in the numerology and not so much the astrology. The Shinra reading is right up your alley, then. Covering the 5 Core Numbers, 5 Periphery Numbers, 7 Planes of Expression and statistical name analysis, this reading can provide a surprising amount of pertinent information in a very small space. PDF: $35; MP3: $45

Ultima – Ultima is the most comprehensive of the general readings. It covers all 14 primary and secondary planets in great detail, touching and illuminating all areas of your life. The written form is one document, though the recording often comes in smaller chunks. If you're the kind of person that learns to swim by diving headfirst into the deep end, consider getting the Ultima. PDF: $100; MP3: $140

Supernova – The Supernova takes any one planet and goes into FULL detail about it, including asteroid, fixed stars, Sabian symbols and its placement over all four Zodiacs. If you want to get a really good grasp of one very specific part of yourself, blow it up with the Supernova! PDF: $30; MP3: $35

Lunar Cry – Some parts of ourselves are not so obvious, hidden even from our own eyes. The Lunar Cry echos through these places and reveals their contents to us using the Nodes, Prenatal Eclipse, Dark Moon, Black Moon, White Moon, Habit Number, Growth Number and Maturity Number. If you've found other astrological work to be missing something deep and mysterious, perhaps the primal sound of the Lunar Cry can call it into showing itself. PDF: $35; MP3: $45

White Wind – This is the reading I wish I'd had for myself in high school and college. By interpreting the positions of Venus, Mars, Eros, Juno, Amor and Sappho as well as the points and planets in your 5th and 7th chart houses, you will learn about your ability to create and sustain relationships of all kinds. Find out what parts of your persona others find attractive, the sorts of people you find yourself drawn to and the specific benefits and baggage you bring to a relationship by listening to the whispers of the White Wind! PDF: $40; MP3: $50

Level Up – “What am I here to do? What should I do with my life?” Take your career or work to a higher place with the Level Up reading. You'll learn about your 6th and 10th chart houses, your Life Path Number, Saturn, the North Node and any other asteroids or fixed stars that outline your career strengths and the work that can point you to fulfillment. Quick forays into the Sidereal and Heliocentric charts are common as well. See where God's plan in your life can unfold as you Level Up! PDF: $40; MP3: $50

Scan – Do you have health concerns? Are you worried about a family illness affecting you or do you have something unusual going on now which conventional treatment doesn't seem to be helping? Scan your body using medical astrology. Though this type of work is considered to be supplementary and not a replacement for health professionals, medical astrology can point out weak systems, organs, or nutritional deficiencies that may be creating problems seen in another part of the body. Recommended strongly for broad, chronic issues like fatigue, weight gain or pain that can have multiple sources, Scan can help direct you to the type of professional practitioner and diagnostic to improve the quality of your health. PDF: $35; MP3: $45

Synastry

These readings and reports combine two persons' natal charts in various ways.

Junction – The composite of two natal charts is used to describe a relationship as its own entity. It's not always the most common use of synastry, but is helpful for describing the life that a marriage or business partnership can take of its own accord. If you're involved with someone and would like to know what the two of you acting in concert could look like, ask for a Junction. PDF: $50; MP3: $65

Lockheart – The Lockheart is the most common synastry reading in use today, comparing two natal charts to each other to explore the relationship dynamics between the people. Will these two people constantly grate on each other's nerves? Do they support or hinder one another in their ventures? Is there a sexual spark? All these questions and more can be answered by opening the Lockheart. PDF: $60; MP3: $75

Van Houten – For those who have moved past the initial stages of relationship and are looking to something more serious, a Van Houten reading can be helpful in understanding the underlying and often unspoken contract between the two people in question. By comparing one partner's natal Tropical chart to the other's Draconic chart (and vice versa), practitioner and clients can learn what each partner expects and needs from the other, allowing for new conversation and recommitment in the relationship. PDF: $60; MP3: $75

Yunalesca – Like the Van Houten, the Yunalesca reading is primarily useful in relationships that have already set commitments. The difference is that this reading, based on comparison of Tropical to Sidereal charts, has more to do with how each person will affect or change the other, where the previous two assume the partners interact but do not permanently affect one another. While no chart or combination of charts can ever predict whether a relationship will fail or succeed, the Yunalesca reading can help determine the stakes and allow those involved to choose appropriately. PDF: $55; MP3: $65

Temporal

Temporal readings move your natal chart backward and forward through time to predict seasons and cycles of your life.

Frozen Flame – Unique among the Temporal readings, the Frozen Flame is actually Horary astrology. For this type of reading, the astrologer receives a specific question from the querent and uses the time and place of the question itself to determine the answer. Horary work is best used when the birth chart of the question's subject is not known. It is also able to handle other practical sorts of questions that other branches of astrology can't handle, such as "I've lost my cat – where is she?" For very specific, concrete or "yes or no"-type questions, see if the Frozen Flame can illuminate the answer! PDF: $15; MP3: $20

Time Compression – We'd all like to have some kind of idea of what to expect for the next year, whether it's January 1 right now or not. Time Compression can give you the heads-up on the trends and potentials that are approaching over the next 12 months. Using astrological secondary and solar arc progressions, explore the areas of your world that are likely to be touched by the events of the near future. Don't let the world sneak up on you unaware! Time Compression brings you tomorrow's news today. PDF: $60; MP3: $75

LifeStream – What if you could see a map of your entire lifetime, with all the forks and twists that you can choose to take or skip? What if you could predict major life turning points years ahead of time? Would you like to swim in your LifeStream? This reading uses both numerology and astrology to locate major life events as well as describe the atmosphere or feel of each year well in advance. This is by far the most instructional and educational service available, as it teaches you to be able to read the language for yourself, not simply rely on someone else to throw dates at you. Refresh your spirit with a dip in the LifeStream! PDF: $60; MP3: $75

Eden – Timing may not be everything, but it sure counts for a lot. If you're looking for a day or time to schedule job interviews, first dates, weddings, surgeries, whatever – be sure to come as close to perfection as possible with Eden. This reading is an application of electional astrology, using the transits (current position of planets in the sky) to predict the best time and day to start any new endeavor. It's also useful for predicting upcoming dates when specific, known action in a specific area of your life is most likely to occur. Forewarned is forearmed. Make your paradise on earth with Eden. PDF: $60; MP3: $75
